

6-6-1935

Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)

Notes

Condition varies. Some pages missing or in poor condition.

Originals provided for filming by the publisher.

Gift of Statesboro Herald and the Bulloch County Historical Society.

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues>

Recommended Citation

"Bulloch Times (Statesboro News-Statesboro Eagle)" (1935). Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues). 1795.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/bulloch-news-issues/1795>

This newspaper is brought to you for free and open access by the Bulloch County Historical Newspapers at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Bulloch County Newspapers (Single Issues) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Social : Clubs : Personal

Purely Personal

Mrs. H. H. Covart spent several days during the week in Millen. Mrs. Eddie Durden, of Metter, was a visitor in the city during the week. L. H. Sewell, of Metter, was a business visitor in the city during the week. Miss Courtney Bradley, of Hagan, visited friends in the city for the week end. Mr. Walter Aldred Jr. and Mrs. J. L. Mathews were visitors in Savannah Friday. Mrs. William Hall, of Savannah, spent last week end with her aunt, Mrs. J. M. Thayer. Miss Harriet Moore, of Rocky Ford, spent last week end as the guest of Mrs. R. Lee Moore. Mrs. Kimber and Miss Mary Eleanor Grantham, of Savannah, visited in Statesboro Sunday.

Mrs. Ruth Simmons, of Brooklet, is spending some time with her sister, Mrs. Fred T. Lanier. Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Bean, Mrs. Sidney Smith, and William Smith spent Sunday in Savannah. Mrs. R. Simmons, of Ocala, Fla., has arrived for a visit to Mr. N. Grimes and other relatives. Mrs. C. B. Hutto and daughter, of Baton Rouge, La., arrived Tuesday for a visit to Mrs. Fred Beasley. Mrs. Beaver has returned to her home in Concord, N. C., after a visit to her son, Roy Beaver, and family. Mrs. J. Z. Kendrick had as her guests Tuesday Mrs. Ned White, of Georgia, and Mrs. J. B. Hussey, of Augusta, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hussey.

Mrs. Hal Kennon has returned from Jacksonville, Fla., where she was called because of the illness of her brother. Mr. Hinton Booth, Mrs. Grover Brannen and Mrs. Max Hubert formed a party visiting in Swainsboro during the week end. Miss Alma Gladen, who has been teaching in the city school, left Saturday for her home at Gordon to spend the summer.

Miss Mary Kate Ellis, of Metter, and Mrs. J. B. Hussey, of Augusta, are spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hussey. Mrs. Howell Cone and daughters, Misses Sara Katherine and Constance Cone, of Savannah, were visitors in the city Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Edwards and children have returned to their home in Cheraw, S. C., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Fred Brannen. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Olliff and sons, Frank Jr. and Billy, left Sunday for Florida to visit Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Huggins at Cross City.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Denmark and Little son, Thomas, have returned to their home in Marianna, Fla., after a visit to their parents here. Miss Norma Boyer, who has been teaching expression in the Statesboro High School, left Tuesday for her home in Millen to spend the summer.

Mrs. Allen Rimes and daughter, Miss Mary Rimes, have returned to Millen, Ala., after a visit to her parents. Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen left Tuesday for a stay of several days at points in Florida.

Mrs. W. J. McGee has returned to her home in Atlanta after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Louie Thompson, who accompanied her home.

Forming a party motoring to Savannah Friday for the day were Leroy Covart, Mrs. E. L. Poindester, Mrs. J. M. Thayer, Mrs. R. L. Brady, Miss Sara Poindester and Miss Sara Covart.

Miss Zula Gagnier, of Columbia, S. C., spent last week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Covart. On Sunday Miss Gagnier left for Beaumont, Texas, accompanied by little Miss Carmen Covart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hagan spent last week end in Atlanta with Mr. and Mrs. Billie, who is at a hospital following an operation. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Brock.

Mrs. Max Hubert, of Athens, spent several days during the week at the home of Mrs. Grover Brannen and family. She left Thursday for Macon to visit and was accompanied by Mrs. Brannen's children.

Mrs. Sidney Nash has returned to her home in West Point, Miss., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Roy Green. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Barnett, who will visit her for awhile before returning to her home in Jonesboro, Ark.

CREAM OF CREAMS

We are pleased to announce the opening of our new Ice Cream Factory in the Maxey E. Grimes' building, East Main Street, where we are prepared to render prompt service on short notice.

SANE SPEED FROZEN ICE CREAM

DOUBLE DIPS
PINTS AND QUARTS AT ALL TIMES.

We invite your patronage and guarantee satisfaction. Visit our place or give us a phone call.

DIETLAND SWEETS

Phone 237
EAST MAIN STREET STATESBORO, GA.

MRS. R. L. BRADY, Editor
PHONE 253-R

Very Best Material and Workmanship

Our Prices
Are Reasonable

CAREFUL PERSONAL ATTENTION GIVEN ALL ORDERS

BRANNEN-THAYER MONUMENT CO.
JOHN M. THAYER, Proprietor.

45 West Main St. STATESBORO, GA. Phone 439

LOCAL PARTIES FOR MISS DEAL

Miss Anita Kemp entertained informally Monday afternoon at her suburban home with a seated tea and handkerchief shower honoring Miss Ruby Anne Deal, a bride-elect. Mrs. Kermit Carr met the guests at the door and presented them with a bride-elect puzzle to be assembled. The bride-elect puzzle was a puzzle of the bride-elect. The puzzle was a puzzle of the bride-elect. The puzzle was a puzzle of the bride-elect.

SEATING TEA
Mrs. Grover C. Brannen entertained at her home on Crescent drive on Monday afternoon with a seated tea honoring her guests. Mrs. Max Hubert, of Athens, Guesing games and sewing were the features of the entertainment. Sandwiches and cakes were served with a beverage. Fourteen guests were invited.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY
The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church celebrated their annual birthday with a party Monday afternoon at the church when a program was rendered. The money raised was used for the Girls' Golden Castle School in Japan.

Miss Margaret Kennedy, of Collins, was a visitor in the city during the week end.

Miss Julian Tillman spent several days during the week with her relatives in Metter.

Mrs. Bernard McDougald has returned from a visit to her parents near Millen.

Miss Leila Mae Tyson, of Jessup, was the weekend guest of Miss Mary Snively O'Neil.

Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Lewis have returned from a visit to his parents in Jacksonville, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Jones and little son, Bowen, of Savannah, visited Mrs. W. E. Brannen last week.

Mrs. W. C. DeLoach left during the week for Rocky Mount, N. C., to visit her parents.

Miss Elizabeth Hancock, of Dublin, spent several days during the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Wilson.

Miss Maedell Turner is visiting friends in Greenville, S. C., before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blitch and little son, of Savannah, were weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Mathews.

Miss Mary Hogan, who has been teaching in the city school, left Saturday for her home in Dublin to spend the summer.

Mrs. Paul Lewis, Mrs. J. Z. Kendrick and Miss Emily Powell were in Brooklet Sunday to attend the commencement sermon.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Kennedy have returned from Wilmington, Delaware, where they visited her brother, J. Clyde Franklin, and his family.

Mrs. Laura Smith has returned to a visit to Dr. R. L. Durence and his sister, Mrs. Brannen.

Mrs. Howard Daddman and two children have returned to their home in Effingham after a visit to her parents.

Mrs. and Mrs. Carl Denmark, of Savannah, have returned to their home in Marianna, Fla., after a visit to their parents here.

Miss Norma Boyer, who has been teaching expression in the Statesboro High School, left Tuesday for her home in Millen to spend the summer.

Mrs. Allen Rimes and daughter, Miss Mary Rimes, have returned to Millen, Ala., after a visit to her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen left Tuesday for a stay of several days at points in Florida.

Mrs. W. J. McGee has returned to her home in Atlanta after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Louie Thompson, who accompanied her home.

Forming a party motoring to Savannah Friday for the day were Leroy Covart, Mrs. E. L. Poindester, Mrs. J. M. Thayer, Mrs. R. L. Brady, Miss Sara Poindester and Miss Sara Covart.

Miss Zula Gagnier, of Columbia, S. C., spent last week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Covart. On Sunday Miss Gagnier left for Beaumont, Texas, accompanied by little Miss Carmen Covart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hagan spent last week end in Atlanta with Mr. and Mrs. Billie, who is at a hospital following an operation. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Brock.

Mrs. Max Hubert, of Athens, spent several days during the week at the home of Mrs. Grover Brannen and family. She left Thursday for Macon to visit and was accompanied by Mrs. Brannen's children.

Mrs. Sidney Nash has returned to her home in West Point, Miss., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Roy Green. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Barnett, who will visit her for awhile before returning to her home in Jonesboro, Ark.

Mrs. Allen Rimes and daughter, Miss Mary Rimes, have returned to Millen, Ala., after a visit to her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen left Tuesday for a stay of several days at points in Florida.

Mrs. W. J. McGee has returned to her home in Atlanta after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Louie Thompson, who accompanied her home.

Forming a party motoring to Savannah Friday for the day were Leroy Covart, Mrs. E. L. Poindester, Mrs. J. M. Thayer, Mrs. R. L. Brady, Miss Sara Poindester and Miss Sara Covart.

Miss Zula Gagnier, of Columbia, S. C., spent last week end at the home of Mrs. H. H. Covart. On Sunday Miss Gagnier left for Beaumont, Texas, accompanied by little Miss Carmen Covart.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hagan spent last week end in Atlanta with Mr. and Mrs. Billie, who is at a hospital following an operation. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Brock.

Mrs. Max Hubert, of Athens, spent several days during the week at the home of Mrs. Grover Brannen and family. She left Thursday for Macon to visit and was accompanied by Mrs. Brannen's children.

Mrs. Sidney Nash has returned to her home in West Point, Miss., after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Roy Green. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Barnett, who will visit her for awhile before returning to her home in Jonesboro, Ark.

Mrs. Allen Rimes and daughter, Miss Mary Rimes, have returned to Millen, Ala., after a visit to her parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Alton Brannen left Tuesday for a stay of several days at points in Florida.

Mrs. W. J. McGee has returned to her home in Atlanta after spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Louie Thompson, who accompanied her home.

Forming a party motoring to Savannah Friday for the day were Leroy Covart, Mrs. E. L. Poindester, Mrs. J. M. Thayer, Mrs. R. L. Brady, Miss Sara Poindester and Miss Sara Covart.

PRE-NUPTIAL HONORS

(From the Cedarhurst Standard.)
Miss Anne Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

Miss Deal, bride-elect, and Mr. Pool Pickett, with a dinner party Friday evening. The bride-elect was the guest of honor.

SOCIAL MEETING OF U. D. C.

A social meeting of the U. D. C. will be held on Tuesday afternoon, June 4th, 3:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. J. W. Williams on Savannah avenue. The program for this occasion will be in observance of the birthday of Jefferson Davis and of Miss Mildred Rutherford. All members are urged to be present.

PRATERNITY BANQUETS
The Iota Pi Nu fraternity entertained their guests at a banquet Saturday evening at the Jackel Hotel. Covers were laid for fifty-six.

The Delta Sigma fraternity held their banquet Saturday evening at the Columns Tea Room. Covers were laid for sixty. Following the banquet, the members held a joint dance at the armory with the College Orchestra furnishing music.

MYSTERY CLUB
The Mystery club and a few other friends, making four tables of players, were entertained by Mrs. Frank Simmons Friday afternoon at her home near Adabelle. Mrs. Edwin Groover made high score for the club and was given stationery. A bracelet for visitors' high was won by Mrs. Robert Donaldson, and a make-up set for cut went to Mrs. Inman Foy. Mrs. Simmons served sandwiches, punch and sherbet.

BRIDGE FOR BRIDE
Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

SO AND SO CLUB
The So and So Club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Susie Hodges at her home on North Main street. Thirteen club members were present. The hostess served a salad course with leaf tea.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr., of Pulaski, and Walter Aldred Jr., all recent brides, to whom she presented imported novelties as gifts. High score prize was won by Miss Mary Mathews and second went to Mrs. Josephine Whitaker who was lucky on the dusting powder. The honoree was presented a piece of lingerie. Late in the afternoon Mrs. McMillan served a delicious salad course and punch. She was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mary Pickett, of Newnan, and Miss Lucy Hester.

Miss Hazel Deal entertained very delightfully at the Columns Tea Room last Thursday afternoon honoring Mesdames Henry Deal, of Dah-longa, George Franklin Jr

PETERSON'S BILLS TO HELP FARMERS

WOULD LIQUIDATE FARM MORTGAGES AND PROVIDE DEBT-FREE HOMES.

Washington, D. C., May 31.—Congressman Peterson today introduced the following important bill to liquidate farm mortgages and provide homes free of debt for actual farm families.

The purposes of this act are to provide for every family an opportunity to own a home; encourage private initiative; protect each citizen in the enjoyment of the fruits of his labor, and more firmly secure for our people their natural right of pursuit of happiness in freedom and independence.

The secretary of the interior, through the general land office, is authorized to:

To purchase any and/or all obligations secured by liens on farm lands, paying for the same an amount not exceeding the normal value of such lands plus the useful value of buildings and improvements thereon.

To settle and liquidate all obligations secured under this act where the mortgagor is still in possession of such lands and where the total normal value of the lands plus the useful value of buildings and improvements thereon exceeds the total encumbrances thereon, in the following manner: The mortgagor shall be permitted to retain of the mortgaged lands, free of any such obligation, an amount of the land involved which will equal to the difference between (1) the total normal value of the total lands encumbered plus the useful value of buildings and improvements thereon, and (2) the total amount of the encumbrances. Such settlement shall be made in such manner as will vest in the general land office fee simple title and possession to the remainder of such lands.

To recognize the right of every mortgagor to carry out the provisions of his obligation, and upon receipt from such mortgagor of complete payment of his obligation and satisfaction of indebtedness, according to the terms of his contract, to cancel such obligation and convey it back to the mortgagor.

The secretary of the interior is authorized to purchase fee simple title to any and/or all farm lands held by the mortgagor or lien holder under a foreclosure concluded after January 1, 1920, paying for the same an amount not exceeding the normal value of such lands plus the useful value of buildings and improvements thereon, and not exceeding the amount of indebtedness under the mortgage or other lien at the time of foreclosure.

Secretary of interior is authorized and directed to make all lands coming into possession of the general land office under this act a part of the public domain.

To classify all lands in the public domain according to their fertility, adaptability and usefulness for farm purposes. To withhold and retain from private ownership all the public domain not suited for farm purposes.

To divide all public lands suitable for farm purposes into tracts, to be known as homesteads, of suitable size for the support of a family of average size under normal conditions, taking into consideration the fertility of the soil and general farm conditions and requirements in the section where said lands are located in determining the size of such tracts.

Secretary of interior, through general land office, is authorized and directed to grant homesteads provided for in this act to any person who is the head of a family, subject to following terms and conditions:

The applicant must have met the general requirements of the homestead acts now in force, not inconsistent with this act, before homestead under this act may be granted.

Preference must be given to farm families living on farms at the time this act goes into effect—a priority right in mortgages living on encumbered lands at the time of liquidation of indebtedness to acquire homesteads within the bounds of said encumbered lands shall be recognized as a fundamental policy of this act.

Homestead grants shall include only the rights of possession and use of lands included in such homestead tract, but such rights shall be just, free and complete as though the land were held under fee simple title.

Secretary of interior shall provide regulations whereby homestead grants provided for in this act may be exchanged.

No person shall be permitted, at any given time, to have title to more than one homestead tract under the act.

No person who is the owner of farm land shall be granted a homestead under this act.

Authority to sell, encumber, or in any manner make such homestead tract subject to any debt shall not

PORTAL POINTS

JEANETTE DeLOACH
Reporter

Kenneth Womack, of Augusta, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Wymon Brown, of Augusta, spent the week end with relatives.

Miss Bessie Lee Brantley, of near Metter, is visiting Mrs. B. L. Hendrix.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyce Edensfield announce the birth of a daughter, Lucy Ed.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jeffries, of Savannah, visited Mrs. Dutha Parrish last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Burke and daughter, of Savannah, spent Sunday here as the guests of Mrs. Ida Hendrix.

Mrs. C. E. Mincey, of Augusta, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Hopper, and his mother, Mrs. Queen Mincey.

E. H. Turner, who has been at the head of the science department in the Portal High School, has returned to his home in Atlanta.

Miss Anne Smith, who is a member of the faculty of the Folkston High School, is at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Smith.

Mrs. A. U. Mincey and son, Jimmie, and Miss Helen, of near Metter, and Grace Bowen attended the Deal-Pickett wedding in Statesboro last Saturday.

Among the teachers leaving for their homes this week are Misses Pauline Freeman, Helen, Cal, Velma Roland, Forsyth, and George Wingard, Savannah.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Waters and two daughters, Maggie and Sarah, of Millen, and Mrs. Fay Attaway, of Hazlehurst, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Stewart.

Miss Lucille Suddath arrived last week to spend the summer with her parents. She has taught home economics for the last two years in the Wrightsville High School.

Misses Sunday and Mrs. Jerome Williams, of Dover, and Mrs. Ella Lauder and daughter, of near Metter, and Polly, of Statesboro, Her guests last week were Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brantley, of near Metter, and Mrs. J. L. Brantley, of Savannah, and Mrs. J. M. Brantley, of Statesboro.

A trustee election was held on May 24th at the Portal school. At this time R. C. Aaron and A. E. Clark were elected to succeed Leonie Brinson and J. B. Fields. The other members of the board are R. D. Mallard, chairman; E. L. Womack, secretary-treasurer, and Paul Suddath.

Monday night, June 3, the graduating exercises of the Portal High School were held in the auditorium. After the invocation by Rev. J. W. Smith, the senior class sang the "Commencement Song." Sam Gay, salutatorian, gave the address of welcome. Misses Alberta Scarboro, Velma Roland and George Wingard, members of the board, sang "The End of a Perfect Day." Catherine Parrish gave the valedictory address.

The speaker, Leon S. Tomlinson, of Statesboro, introduced by the principal, Rupert Parrish, delivered the literary address. His subject was "The Open Mind." R. D. Mallard, chairman of the board of trustees, presented the diplomas to twenty-four seniors.

They were: Urcutt Aaron, Celestia Aaron, Kathleen Akins, Nannie Pearl Bennett, Grace Bowen, Andrew Brinson, Alma Wrenna Brannen, Bessie Lou Brantley, Luree Brinson, Sam Gay, Henri Ellen Kelly, John W. Hendrix, Eugene Johnson, Lottie Belle Lee, Martha Mincey, Mary Mincey, Marion Millay, Alma Reta Tyson, Rebecca Woods, Cecil Womack, Catherine Parrish, president; Day Mallard, vice-president, and Charlie Cecil Saunders, secretary-treasurer.

Rev. Wm. Kitchen pronounced the benediction. As the class marched out, led by the mascot, Ramona Wynn, they sang "Follow the Glean." After the exercises the members of the senior class and faculty were given a reception at the home of Miss Thelma Brannen.

If you don't believe in such things as supply and demand and overproduction, please note that the more big oil wells which are brought in the less the value of the oil securities becomes.

Homestead grants, under this act, shall be free except that a nominal registration fee or not exceeding ten dollars ($10) may be charged.

The laws, including those relating to taxation, of any state or political subdivision in which any lands coming into the possession of the secretary of the interior under the terms of this act are situated shall apply in the case of such lands in the same manner and to the same extent as such laws apply in the case of privately owned lands.

Upon failure of any owner of homestead grant under this act to meet all such obligations on the lands held under such homestead grant, his rights under said grant shall be forfeited and shall revert to the general land office, and said office shall have power to eject the owner from possession and repossess such lands, making them again eligible for entry by other qualified applicants under this act.

There is hereby authorized to be appropriated, from time to time, such sums as may be necessary to carry out provisions and intent of this act.

Authority to sell, encumber, or in any manner make such homestead tract subject to any debt shall not

BROOKLET NEWS

MRS. F. W. HUGHES,
Reporter

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Watkins and family will not be at the Melburn club house for a camping trip during the month of June as previously has been announced.

Mrs. F. W. Hughes, of the Brooklet High School faculty, has again accepted a position as house mother at the University of Georgia for this summer. During her stay there she will take a course in the new curriculum revision study.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Parrish and family, who have been living in Stillmore for the past two years, have moved to their home here. The Parrish family have lived here until two years ago they moved to Stillmore, where he was engaged in lumber business. The people of Brooklet are glad to welcome them back.

Teachers from Brooklet who have been away for the last scholastic year and have returned home for the summer are: Misses Alderman, Miss Ellie Joiner, Miss Pauline Slater, Miss Ethel Lee, Miss Shiley Mann, Miss Frankie Lou Warnock, Miss Ollie Mae Lanier, Miss Ruth Belcher and Miss Milwene Minick.

Mrs. E. C. Watkins delightfully entertained about twenty-five of her friends Tuesday afternoon with a stunts party. Mrs. W. R. Altman and Mrs. W. D. Lee won prizes for the most original stunt and the cutest stunt. Mrs. Edgar Parrish, of Portal, and Mrs. Jim Hinton assisted in serving refreshments in two courses.

Rev. E. L. Harrison, who recently accepted the call as pastor of the Baptist church here, has moved his family into the new parsonage here. He preached his introductory sermon Sunday morning from the subject, "Pastoral Relationships." He based his discussion on the fourth chapter of Ephesians, eleventh verse, "And be ye to some apostles, and to some prophets, and some evangelists, and some pastors and teachers." He closed his sermon by inviting a number of duties the pastor owes to his congregation and also the duties of the church members to the pastor.

The tentative program as announced by Miss Collier calls for the first meeting to be held on Monday night, August 12, when vespers will be held, followed by an organization and greetings program. Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to demonstrations, lectures, departmental meetings and crafts work.

Wednesday will be home-coming day for all former home agents, and on Thursday the annual meeting of the state home demonstration council will be held. Lectures, demonstrations and tours of the campus will be given Friday.

Evening programs will be devoted to one-act plays given by home demonstration clubs, style shows and informal group programs.

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

FARM WOMEN TO MEET AT ATHENS

CONFERENCE DURING AUGUST TO DISCUSS SUBJECTS OF INTEREST TO HOUSEWIVES.

The eleventh annual farm women's short course in agriculture and home economics will be held at the College of Agriculture August 12-17 in connection with Farm and Home Week.

Among the features of the program will be the annual session of the state home demonstration council, the first home-coming of former home demonstration agents, and the first baby show of former home demonstration agents, Miss Collier said.

All farm women and former home demonstration workers have been issued a special invitation to attend the meeting, and they may enroll through the home agent. If there is no home agent in the county, the county agricultural agent may be notified.

The cost of attendance at the meeting will be five dollars, which covers all of the necessary expenses while in Athens. This includes room, board, and admission to all of the entertainment features in connection with the meeting.

The tentative program as announced by Miss Collier calls for the first meeting to be held on Monday night, August 12, when vespers will be held, followed by an organization and greetings program. Tuesday and Wednesday will be devoted to demonstrations, lectures, departmental meetings and crafts work.

Wednesday will be home-coming day for all former home agents, and on Thursday the annual meeting of the state home demonstration council will be held. Lectures, demonstrations and tours of the campus will be given Friday.

Evening programs will be devoted to one-act plays given by home demonstration clubs, style shows and informal group programs.

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

For Over Ten Years... the emblem of
complete satisfaction and greater values in
used cars

This Car
has been carefully checked and reconditioned as shown by (✓) marks below

Serial Number	Stock Number
RADIATOR	HORN
MOTOR	BATTERY
CLUTCH	BODY
TRANSMISSION	GLASS
REAR AXLE	FENDERS
STEERING	FINISH
BRAKES	TIRES
STARTING	UPHOLSTERY
LIGHTING	FLOOR MATS
IGNITION	LUBRICATION

Guaranteed
By Your Chevrolet Dealer

Price

Gulf States Steel Company
Birmingham, Alabama

STATSBORO BUGGY & WAGON CO.
STATSBORO, GEORGIA

the state home demonstration council will be held. Lectures, demonstrations and tours of the campus will be given Friday.

Evening programs will be devoted to one-act plays given by home demonstration clubs, style shows and informal group programs.

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

check 666 MALARIA in 3 days COLDS first day. TONIC AND LAXATIVE (2mar'36)

FOR more than ten years, this familiar Red "OK" tag has been a symbol of sound, dependable used cars and of outstanding used car values. Great numbers of people in this community have learned that the way to get a better used car is to visit this organization and buy a car with the "OK" that counts.

We are very discriminating about the cars we take in trade, accepting only popular makes and models. We are even more careful in preparing these cars for public sale.

Every car must pass a rigid, systematic inspection before it is awarded our Guaranteed "OK" tag. All features are carefully checked by factory-trained mechanics—brakes are adjusted, upholstery cleaned, the car made to look like new, and all mechanical parts reconditioned to provide the finest and most dependable performance.

Yet you pay no more for our Guaranteed "OK" used cars because we do a large volume of business and can afford to give you more for your money. See our fine stock of used cars—today! Not only will you get a better used car value but you will also get a better deal on your old car in trade.

SEE US FOR
Guaranteed
USED CARS

with an OK that counts.

AVERITT BROTHERS AUTO CO.

STATSBORO, GA.

.. Nobody's Business ..

(By GEE McGEE, Anderson, S. C.)

What Broke Us

The boll weevil didn't bust us. Our bills didn't do it either; only half the money of 1929, 1930 and 1931 were ever paid. Our crops have brought as much money every year since 1921 as they ever brought prior to 1918... based on cost of production.

The drought of last year was only the straw that broke the camel's back. We were wobbly and weak before that calamity befell us. We are having to pay for what we eat because of it.

But listen, folks: What broke me and you was extravagance. We made 2 dollars and spent 4. We let interest eat us up. We let indiscriminate purchase and use of automobiles contribute materially to our downfall. Silk stockings and fur coats aided and abetted to some extent.

Speculation was the entering wedge. Easy credit was the mother of speculation. We borrowed money with our eyes shut, and bought stuff without thinking of values. We counted our wealth on a basis of equities, and when the show-down came there were no equities.

We figured that we were worth so much above what we owed but never figured how we were going to pay out debts. We are still living beyond our means. I am talking about both you and me. We are enjoying luxuries that we can't afford and we know it.

Ninety per cent of every dollar you and I make in the form of wages or produce is spent every five weeks before we earn it. Our wages are now pledged in most cases 6 months ahead.

Now, people—what are we going to do about it? Nothing at all. That's right. The standard of living is not exactly too high for the good of the country educationally and morally, but it's too high to bring forth a prosperous and honorable citizenship. We are still trying to keep ahead of the Joneses.

It is ridiculous to hear sensible people talk of reducing taxes without some manner of reducing expenses first being inaugurated. How can we have what we want and what we are used to without taxes? High taxes didn't bust us either, but until we get better off taxes should be lowered, if possible. The man who succeeds from this day hence is going to merit success.

N-o-t-h-i-n-g

I asked a lady what subject she wanted me to write on today, and she said: "Nothing!" I am glad to be able to accommodate her.

The word nothing emanated from a mother-in-law's "no" and the rear end of "something." Nothing is what a politician's promise amounts to, and represents also what you get when you pay for oil stock.

Nothing is what some folks think I am, and is likewise what I think some folks are. Nothing is also what some young men and young women amount to when their daddies spend several thousand dollars trying to raise and educate them.

Nothing is what a man paid me the other day when he gave me his check in settlement of his account.

Nothing is what the legislature is going to do about reducing taxes when they meet next year. Nothing is what we got for at least 45 cents of every dollar we paid in taxes last year.

Nothing is what a girl said when I asked her to marry me in 1906 and she didn't do nothing else. Nothing is what I had left after I paid my last month's grocery bills, and it now looks like I won't have even that much before I pay them this month.

Nothing is what the little boy shot at, and nothing it what he hit when he swore he killed a rabbit. Except a dress and one other little garment nothing is what the average girl wears.

Nothing is what a congressional investigation finds out, and nothing is what the people expect to learn from them.

Nothing is what our cook does most of the time, and nothing is what I have to eat when she burns the breakfast bacon. Nothing is what I've got now and nothing is what I expect later, and I don't want to hear nothing else about this article—because it's written about nothing and I know nothing else to do or say.

Hot Weather News From Flat Rock summer time is making a great many changes in our midst. Wilkins almost suffer-cold while in the field plowing a very fast mile Friday and had to be carried to the hospital to be revived again. him and the mile is both resting well at present.

holsum moore and his family have gone up into the mountains to a summer cottage which belongs to a deceased uncle of his, and the titles have not been taken over by the mortgage company, so him and his folks will live in same free of cost for a week. It is called the "peep inn," you can also peep out of it, as it is full of cracks amsoforth.

the weather is hotter than our munny-cippal politticks at present. no campaign meeting has been held since the one which broke up into a big fight in front of the city hall about 2 weeks ago with several bones dislocated, including 2 jaws, 3 legs and possibly a shoulder or so. the present encumbrance for mayor almost concedes the job to his competitor.

miss jennie veece smith, our afficiant scholl principle, has asked the scholl board to put in 2 type-riters this coming seem-ester; she plans to instel a binness course in the tenth grade. she do not teech shorthand, but says that she will use the "look and peck" system with dict-tating to come direct from the mouth to the type-riter.

the remote control farmers who live in flat rock say that they think their crops are all doing very well considering congress being in session. most of them would like to plow up some cotton, corn, hops and poultry, but so far as they are not having anything destroyed for cash as here to fear. yore corry spondent, mr. mike Clark, rld, has offered to plow up 2 akers of cotton for 12¢, but secker-tray wallace has not ro him back about same.

a large number of mad dogs have been infesting our community, and our poleasman has notified the public that if any of same is ketchid running at large on the streets without muzzles on that he will shoot them at sight. he says hydrophly is a very dangerous thing and must be videdicated from our city. nearly everbody has already instaled muzzles, but a few of them are wearing tied at their respectful homes where only their own childrens can be bit by them.

yores trulle, mike Clark, rld, corry spondent.

TALMADGE IS PUT IN NATIONAL POST

The Georgia Democratic state executive committee endorsed evened out Governor Talmadge and elected him to succeed the late Major John S. Cohen as Democratic national committeeman from Georgia at a harmonious session of the new committee in Atlanta last week.

Briefly the actions of the committee follow:

1. Adoption of a resolution criticizing the Democratic national administration for alleged failure to carry out the party platform of 1932.

2. Unanimous election of Governor Talmadge as national committeeman following the refusal of Ryburn Clay to accept the post.

3. Adoption of a resolution sending "friendly greetings" to President Roosevelt and invoking "Divine guidance for him."

4. Appointment of a rules committee to fix regulations for the next state primary composed of ardent supporters of Governor Talmadge.

Congressman Cox, in a statement from Washington, said Governor Talmadge as national committeeman from Georgia will have no voice in national party affairs "until he has ceased his warfare on the party and its leader, the president."

The national Democratic committee is a committee of the Democratic party against which the governor is waging a war of his own making," the congressman said. Cox was the first member of the Georgia congressional delegation to challenge openly the criticism Talmadge has heaped upon President Roosevelt and the administration.

CHANGE OF BUSINESS

On account of the condition of my health, I have been forced to retire from the shoe repairing business and am now operating a taxicab. I shall be glad to have your patronage in that line. Day phone 355; night phone 389-L. O. R. NOWELL. (18apriltp)

HENRY FORD MADE INTERESTING FIND

HIS DISCOVERY OF VANADIUM STEEL RATED AS IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT.

One of the most interesting chapters in the early history of the Ford Motor Company, according to S. W. Lewis, Ford dealer here, is the account of Henry Ford's discovery of vanadium steel.

"When Mr. Ford made his first public showing of the Ford car, at the 1903 Chicago automobile show, even then he was planning toward the 'universal car,' Mr. Lewis says. 'From the day the first automobile appeared, Henry Ford looked upon it as a necessity. This led him to build to the one end—a car that would meet the wants of the multitudes.'

"The results of road tests and races, and the performance of cars in service, determined changes that ought to be used in the early-day Fords; and by 1905 Henry Ford worked out specifications for the automobile he wanted to build as the 'universal car.' But he didn't have the material to give strength without weight.

"In 1905 Mr. Ford attended an automobile race at Palm Beach. There was a smash-up. A French car was wrecked. At the scene of the wreck Mr. Ford picked up a small valve stem. It was very light, yet it had great strength. He asked what it was made of, but nobody knew.

"The man who was destined to become the world's greatest motor car manufacturer realized that foreign automobiles had smaller and better parts than any American maker knew about. So he determined to find out about that bit of metal, saying at the time, 'This is the kind of material we ought to have in our cars.'

"Eventually it was learned that the metal was a French steel with vanadium in it.

"Mr. Ford tried every steel maker in this country, but none could make vanadium steel. So he sent to England for a man who understood how to make it commercially.

"The next thing was to get a plant to turn out the metal. And that was difficult. Vanadium requires 3,000 degrees Fahrenheit, and the ordinary furnace could not go beyond 2,700 degrees.

"A small steel plant at Canton, Ohio, was offered a guarantee against loss if it would undertake to run a heat. The first heat was a failure. Very little vanadium remained in the steel. 'Try again,' said Mr. Ford.

And the second time the steel came through. Until then Henry Ford had been forced to be satisfied with steel running between 60,000 and 70,000 pounds tensile strength. With vanadium, its strength went up to 170,000 pounds.

"With vanadium available, Ford took cars apart and tested in detail to determine exactly what kind of steel was best for every part—whether or he wanted a hard steel, a tough steel, or an elastic steel. This was the first time in the history of any big construction that the exact quality of steel was determined scientifically.

"Before these experiments," Mr. Lewis states, "not more than four grades of steel had been used in automobile construction; but as a result of Ford's tests some 20 different types of steel were selected for various parts of the Ford car, vanadium being used wherever strength and lightness were required.

"And the Ford V-8 for 1935, Henry Ford's masterpiece—the only V-8 that can be bought for less than $2,000—is heralded as an automotive triumph, with a production schedule of a million or more cars for this year. But I often wonder," the local dealer observes, "what the history of the Ford Motor Company would have been, and what the history of the automotive industry would have been, had Henry Ford not picked up that little valve strip stem at Palm Beach."

CARD OF THANKS

We want to thank each and every one who were so kind during the recent death of our husband and father. May the richest blessing rest upon you.

MRS. H. J. MARTIN AND CHILDREN.

LOST—On streets Saturday night, white gold watch wrist watch, Winton make, octagon shape, 14 jewels; has part of the number rubbed off of dial; finder will be rewarded upon return to Mrs. E. L. L. NIER, 104 Savannah avenue. (1tp)

In North Georgia spring houses

SPECIAL CARE FOR EGGS IN SUMMER

Several important steps are necessary in order to produce quality eggs in the summer, R. J. Richardson, extension economist in poultry marketing, says. Heat causes eggs to deteriorate rapidly, he states, and care should be taken to keep them stored

NEWS OF THE WEEK
OVER THE NATION

HAPPENINGS THAT AFFECT DINER PAIRS, DIVIDEND CHECKS AND TAX BILLS OF PEOPLE.

For all that is written and said to the contrary, business today is as much—and perhaps more—afraid of inflation than it was two years ago when the clouds of currency inflation filled the financial sky. One indication of business' attitude is the fact that the administration has twice within a late week attempted to assure industrialists that inflation is not anticipated, that a sound currency will be maintained.

Secretary Morgenthau's recent speech was designed to quiet internal fears as to the stability of the dollar, and to point out that the treasury was ready and willing to co-operate with other nations in achieving monetary stabilization. That represents a rather decisive change from the administration's past stand—it will be remembered that the president "wrecked" the World Economic Conference by flatly refusing to consider stabilization.

Second event was the president's own speech before congress in vetoing the bonus—it represented the first time that a chief executive has appeared before the legislative branch to explain a veto, ask that it be upheld. The president covered much larger issues than the bonus in his talk—which was extremely well received, was praised by conservative newspapers which dislike most of his speeches—and pledged the administration to oppose the promiscuous issuing of greenbacks. Key-note of all he said was monetary stability.

Even so, business is not convinced, and a good many level-headed observers can still see the ominous specter of inflation on the horizon. Main reason is the so-called "Omni-bank Bill," which has passed the house, is now pending in the senate. Proponents and opponents of the bill agree on one thing: If it passes, the banking set-up of the nation will almost entirely be revolutionized. At the present time, the power to control the flow of the country's credit and currency rests largely in the hands of the government and directors of the twelve Federal Reserve Banks. The bill provides that this power shall be taken from these governors, given to a federal reserve board whose members shall be appointed by the president. The issue, then, in the words of News-Week, is this: "Should power over the controlling mechanism be placed with a federal reserve board subject to political domination? Or should this power go to an independent committee—a supreme court of banking?"

That issue is arousing one of the bitterest verbal battles of years among experts. Administration men, such as Federal Reserve Governor Eccles, who fathered the bill, feel that the political domination phase of the matter is less important than it seems, that the creation of a federal reserve board is highly desirable. Opponents of the bill agree with Winthrop Aldrich, head of Chase National Bank, largest commercial institution in the country; who recently said: "This bill is a usurpation of the federal reserve. It is making it into an instrument of despotic authority."

Now for the inflation possibilities. LOGAN HAGAN YOUR FAVORITE SNAPSHOT ENLARGED, COLORED, and FRAMED for only 25¢ and 3 CAMAY wrappers. ASK US HOW 3 Cakes for 14¢. 24 Clothes Pins FREE with 2 CHIPSO for 19¢. Boys and Girls, Get Your P&G Circus Books Here.

450 Wm. A. Rogers Silver Serving Fork for only 25¢ and one 3-lb. Crisco wrapper. 24 Clothes Pins FREE with 2 CHIPSO for 19¢. Boys and Girls, Get Your P&G Circus Books Here.

450 Wm. A. Rogers Silver Serving Fork for only 25¢ and one 3-lb. Crisco wrapper. 24 Clothes Pins FREE with 2 CHIPSO for 19¢. Boys and Girls, Get Your P&G Circus Books Here.

450 Wm. A. Rogers Silver Serving Fork for only 25¢ and one 3-lb. Crisco wrapper. 24 Clothes Pins FREE with 2 CHIPSO for 19¢. Boys and Girls, Get Your P&G Circus Books Here.

GIVE PICTURES OF NOTED GEORGIANS

GROUP REPLICA OF GEORGIA HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY TRUST COMPANY.

State-wide interest has been evidenced in the recent completion of the fifteen portraits of illustrious Georgians by the noted Atlanta artist, Lewis C. Gregg, and following a veritable deluge of requests made by librarians and educators that the paintings be made available to schools and other institutions, the Trust Company of Georgia, in Atlanta, where the originals are hung, decided to reproduce the entire collection in a striking monotone print 20x24 inches and offer it framed under glass as a gift to institutions.

Copies of the beautiful reproductions have been presented to the Statesboro High School, Pulaski High School, Brookfield High School, South Georgia Teachers College, Stilson High School, Register High School, Portland High School.

At the time of the presentation, the framed portraits were available for donation to institutions met with instant response—a response that was almost overwhelming. More than 400 schools, colleges and libraries requested the reproduction of the first week following the offering.

Hang on the walls of the banking institution at the suggestion of Mrs. T. K. Glenn, wife of Thomas K. Glenn, president of the Trust Company, the original paintings of illustrious Georgians are considered to be among the best existing likenesses of the men and women who have made the state what it is today. The central portrait of the group replica, appropriately enough, contains the likenesses of Button Gwinnett, George Walton and Lyman Hall, the Georgians who signed the Declaration of Independence. Grouped around this painting in tasteful array are reproductions of the paintings of General James Edward Oglethorpe, founder of the colony; William Harris Crawford, United States treasurer and ambassador to the court of Napoleon; Rebecca Latimer Felton, the first woman to become a United States senator; Tomochichi and his nephew, Tocanahowi, chief of the Yamacraw Indians and friend of Oglethorpe's colonists; the Rev. John Wesley, founder of Methodism; and the Rev. John Wesley, founder of Methodism.

of the bill. According to Mr. Aldrich, it grants the power to the proposed federal reserve board to force on the amount of any kind of government securities; to fix rates of discount and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

SLATS' DIARY

(By Ross Farquhar.)

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Friday—Unkel Hen says that since the Dipreth you can't hardly tell the college boys from the other kind of fellows because they all drink and loaf a round home about the same way.

Saturday—Lizzy Tubbs' "wilt" cleared house for us today was a telling ma she prill nigh had a sick spell yesterday. She had a fit with her land Lord and then she had to lick her 18-year-old boy and got into an argument with her husband and was kinda nervous and upset and then she seen a Mouse and Fainted.

Sunday—Pa was talking of a ole friend of hisen today which use to shed at skool and in the back of Books which wasent so very nice and now he has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Monday—Pa ast Snub Post what kinda curriculum he had at collage this yr. and Snub replied and said he dident have no books he had it cut out in a Operashun eryl last fall.

Tuesday—Ant Emmy says she cant stand it much longer without going back to the country for a few weeks. She ned she is very very home sick and she has got his self a job working on a very very popular Magazine.

Wednesday—Joe Hix hassent Trimmed his finger nales for over two weeks becaz the doctor advised him not to take very much Xerise.

Thursday—Pa sure balled up a hed line in the paper with he wirks on today. He printed in big letters, Mayor of City cuts ribbons and walks over NEW BRIDE Following the wedding ceremony. He was writing about the new brick bridge.

Crawford W. Long, discoverer of anaesthesia; Sidney Lanier, noted poet; Eli Whitney, inventor of the cotton gin; Joel Chandler Harris, author of the famous Uncle Remus stories; Alexander H. Stephens, vice-president of the Confederate States of America; Josiah Meigs, first president of Franklin College, later the University of Georgia; Henry W. Grady, soldier, statesman and orator; Frank L. Stanton, first post-laudate of Georgia, and Lucius Quintus Cincinnatus Lamar, justice of the United States supreme court.

One cannot help, in gazing on the group, with being struck by the veracity and interest charged by the reserve banks; to lower the standards for the banks to purchase government obligations in unlimited amounts directly from the treasury.

It is obvious then that the passage of the act would give an administration-controlled board unlimited power to force credit expansion—which is nothing more or less than inflation. Under the terms of the act, the treasury could sell new securities to the banks whenever it became pressed for funds, whether or not income and the state of the currency justified their being purchased. Old-time bankers and financial commentators literally shudder when they think of the possibilities inherent in that.

It is difficult to forecast whether or not the act will pass with the features conservative think are objectionable still in it. It seems certain, however, that the bill will be modified to some degree in the senate, due principally to Senator Glass, who is a hard-money man from "way back, hates and fears any and all kinds of inflation, distrusts Mr. Eccles' economic views.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

Forty per cent of the "housing market" is in five states—New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio and California, and more than 75 per cent of prospective business is in one-third of the states.

